

New CFO to BioGaia

Alexander Kotsinas will start the position as Chief Financial Officer at BioGaia 5 November 2019. Until the end of the year, he will work in parallel with Margareta Hagman, who after many years at BioGaia will resign from her position.

“I have had 23 fantastic years at BioGaia and an incredible journey with the company, but now it is time for me to move on,” says Margareta Hagman, Executive Vice President Accounting, Finance and Investor Relations at BioGaia.

Alexander has a long and broad experience as CFO. Currently he holds a position at Lowell. Other work experiences include positions at Nexttrobe, Q-Med, Life Europe, Tre, Investor and Ericsson.
